

Limbaugh offers comments on ABC 4 News 'One World Cafe' report

Last Update: 11/12 5:59 pm

SALT LAKE CITY (ABC 4 News) – Conservative Radio show personality Rush Limbaugh made new comments about Salt Lake City's One World Café – and about ABC 4 News.

On Monday, Limbaugh cited a Salt Lake Tribune article about recent financial troubles of the café, which were attributed to lack of management experience.

On Wednesday's nationally syndicated show, Limbaugh cited ABC 4's report on his comments, and played part of the audio from Susan Wood's report.

Limbaugh said the One World Café's troubles had less to do with its business management than the liberal 'ideology' behind it.

One World patrons are allowed to set their own price for meals.

Limbaugh also referred to One World Patrons as '...long-hair maggot-infested, dope-smoking FM [radio] types' who would not eat beef.

Susan Wood discovered that beef is indeed on the menu at One World. Monday's 10:00 p.m. ABC 4 News report also gave café owner Denise Cerreta a chance to offer a meal to Limbaugh the next time he travels to Salt Lake City.

Limbaugh accepted the offer on Wednesday, with the caveat that he would do so only if the café were still in business.
